

We are grateful to those individuals who have alerted us to a recent attempt to misuse the FRC's name to improperly secure their personal details. The site in question has now been closed down. If you become suspicious of an unsolicited e-mail from any organisation using our name (particularly if there is a request for any form of personal information) please contact us at enquiries@frc.org.uk.
If in any doubt, do not respond to the e-mail without checking with us.
